Dear XXXX,

I hope you have settled into life at Aylsham High School and have had a great first term.

I am writing to you because we have had some exciting news at Colby School which involves you and your old Year 6 friends. The Primary School League Tables were published yesterday and the Year 6 results in the National Tests were compared between schools locally and all around the country.

I am very excited to inform you that due to your hard work, Colby School did extremely well! Thank you for your contribution – everyone played their part.

Colby School was the 4th best school in Norfolk for children achieving the expected standard in Reading, Writing and Mathematics.

Colby School was the best school in Norfolk for children achieving the higher standard – in 1st place out of 432 schools!

We were also 2nd in Norfolk for your mathematics scores and in the top 1% nationally.

I am very proud of how hard you all worked last year and these fantastic positions in the League Tables are well deserved – well done, XXX!

You were a fantastic Year 6, but life is not all about test scores – if there were League Tables for being kind, happy, enthusiastic and brilliant young people you would definitely be in first place for them all!

Have a lovely Christmas.

Kind regards,

Mrs Mead
